Everyday Eats Program

Everyday Eats is a food support program for qualifying Coloradans age 60+ to help keep healthy food staples in their kitchens. Known nationally as the Commodity Supplemental Food Program, Everyday Eats is quick, it's easy, and it's healthy. Participants can pick up a monthly package of cereal, canned goods and dairy with plenty of low-sodium, diabetic-friendly options to make nutritious, complete meals.

Please feel free to come to distribution and check it out, meet new people, and help out! We would love to have you.

Approximately 7.7% of Colorado adults aged 60 and older face food insecurity, lacking consistent access to enough food for an active, healthy life due to limited resources. Over 50,000 older Coloradans received nutritional support in 2023, with advocates warning that rising demand and stagnant funding threaten senior care. - https://www.americashealthrankings.org/explore/measures/food\_insecurity\_sr\_v2/CO
